

SCHOOL TRIP INFORMATION SHEET

September 21

Dear Parent / Carer,

Our new topic 'Fair Winter for all' will begin on Monday 8th November.

The hook for this topic will involve a visit from the high street retailer LUSH. Over the last 10 years, LUSH have developed fair trade relationships with producers all over the world and use only fair trade ingredients for many of their products.

During Monday 8th November the children will take part in a fair trade workshop and will also have the chance to make their very own bath bomb to take home using fair trade products. The bath bomb the children will be making is called 'The Comforter'. The following link contains all the ingredients the children will be working with during their workshop <https://www.lush.com/uk/en/p/the-comforter-bubble-bar>

If your child is allergic to any of these ingredients, please notify us prior to the workshop.

The cost for this workshop is £8.50 per child.

In addition to this cost, we are also asking for a £2 contribution per child. This money will help to cover the cost for all the cooking ingredients the children will need in order to make their Winter themed food boxes.
