

Rewards at Shirley Junior School

Reward	Awarded for...	Extra notes
House points	General good behaviour, manners, having planners in school, completing reading reflections, handing holiday homework in, completing TT Rockstars sessions each week, etc.	These are added up each week by house captains and the house with the most house points earns the cup for that week. The winning house each term gets a reward decided by the house captains.
Effort stars	Effort in the different Jet areas: Curiosity and Imagination, Independence & Aspiration, Citizenship, Co-operation, Reflection and Problem Solving. Effort stars can be given for written work, group work, learning, completing jobs around school	In Friday assembly, each teacher chooses a child from their class to receive the Jet certificate for the week – there is a Jet linked to each half term. Senior Leaders have extra-fancy Jet stickers that they award to children who are sent down to the Leadership office to show their learning. Children receive certificates in assemblies when they have reached 40, 80 and 120 Jet stickers.
Pen license	Children are awarded their pen licence when their handwriting is neat enough.	Pen licenses can be temporarily revoked if handwriting standards slip.
Ladder of good choices	Each classroom has one of these with a name label for each child. When children make good choices, following the school's golden Rules, they are asked to move their name up the ladder. If they reach the top, they can take a mini-certificate home to celebrate. If they are making choices that go against the Golden Rules then, after a verbal warning, they will be asked to move their name down the ladder to Stop and Think, and down further if they continue to make these choices. If they reach 'Reflection' or 'Consequence' then they will have a chance to discuss their choices with their teacher in a Repair and Rebuild discussion.	Ladder levels: Amazing Choices Great Choices Good Choices -middle- Stop and Think Reflection Consequence
Certificates for good manners and sportsmanship	These are handed out in Friday Celebration assembly, to children chosen by the office staff (good manners) and Team Spirit coaches (sportsmanship).
Weekly Reading display	Classrooms each have a different display linked to their book corners, where children can move their names up the steps depending on how many times they have read and reflected that week.
