Literacy - Lesson 1

We are going to be revisiting relative clauses.

Task One

First, let's recap what a relative clause is:

The link below will take you to the BBC Bitesize website:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zwwp8mn/articles/zsrt4qt>.

Watch the video and have a go at highlighting the relative clause.

As explained in the video, relative clauses are used to give additional information about a noun.

E.g. Miss Ryder, whose favourite fruit is a nectarine, is enjoying a fruit salad.

Relative Pronouns

A relative clause always starts with a relative pronoun.

Examples of relative pronouns are:

whose

who

that whom

Task Two

Watch this Super Movers video on relative clauses and join in with Max and Harvey:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/supermovers/ks2-english-relative-clauses-with-max-harvey/z4ndvk7>.

How many different relative pronouns do they use?

Task Three

Write your own definition of a relative clause in the space below, including an example:

Literacy - Lesson 2

Task One

Highlight or underline the relative pronouns in the sentences below.

- a) Tawny owls, which eat mice and other small mammals, are nocturnal birds.
- b) Usain Bolt, whose home is in Jamaica, has won lots of gold medals.
- c) Pizza, which originates from Italy, is Rebecca's favourite food.
- d) The plumber, who arrived late, had forgotten to bring his plunger, which meant he was unable to unblock our sink.

Task Two

Highlight or underline the relative clauses in the sentences below.

- a) The sugary drink, which was really fizzy, made me feel sick.
- b) My brother, who has straight dark hair and green eyes, looks just like my dad.
- c) A tiger's fur is covered in stripes, which it uses for camouflage.
- d) Bea, who was the youngest in the tribe, danced around the fire.

Task Three

Add commas in the correct places below to make the relative clauses grammatically correct.

- a) Leo who is very sporty enjoys PE lessons.
- b) The pet ambulance rushed to the injured dog which had trapped its paw.
- c) Bananas which grow in tropical countries have to be flown into Britain.
- d) Emmanuel who doesn't like clowns wasn't enjoying Celine's party.

Task Four

Use relative clauses to uplevel the sentences below.

Don't forget to add relative pronouns and commas!

I live in Southampton with my mum, dad, sister and cat. My mum and my sister are very alike. I get on better with my dad. My cat is called Gabby. I like playing in the garden.

Literacy - Lesson 3

Captain Tom Moore

- has been in the news recently
- is 99 years old
- has raised over £20M for the NHS
- wanted to do 100 laps of his garden before his 100th birthday

More information: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/av/uk-52312019/coronavirus-the-story-of-captain-tom-s-walk>

Write a paragraph about Captain Tom Moore, using relative clauses to add extra information.

Now, go back through and check:

- You have used capital letters at the beginning of sentences and for names of people or places
- You have used full stops
- You have used relative clauses
- You have checked any spellings you were unsure of Underline or highlight the relative clauses you have used.
