Year 3

Prepositions

This week your task is to revise the use of prepositions. Remember that prepositions are used to describe time, place or movement.

- You will complete Task 1 which will revise what prepositions are.
- Next you will complete Task 2 which will let you practise this skill.
- Finally you will apply your knowledge by using the skill in a piece of writing for Task 3.

Task 1: Where Is Everything?

Look at this bedroom scene. Talk to someone in your family or jot down and describe where everything is.

Task 1: Where Is Everything?

Here are some examples of what you could have had to describe where everything is.

Task 1:

Preposition Mind Map

How many different words or phrases (prepositions) can you think of to describe time, place or movement?

Jot your ideas on a scrap piece of paper.

Task 1: Spot the Preposition

Read the sentences below and spot the preposition which describes the place, time or cause.

The scissors were left next to the pencil case.

Hamid and Salma wrote in their books.

The ladies stepped on blocks.

I sheltered beneath my umbrella.

Spot the Preposition

The scissors were left next to the pencil case.

Hamid and Salma wrote in their books.

The ladies stepped on blocks.

I sheltered beneath my umbrella.

Task 1:

Add a Preposition

Read the sentences below and add a preposition which describes the place, time or cause.

The girl held her arms _____ her head.

Go and sit _____ Stan.

Joe was _____ the bath when the phone rang.

They hid _____ the table _____ an earthquake.

Add a Preposition

The girl held her arms above her head.

Go and sit next to Stan.

Joe was in the bath when the phone rang.

They hid under the table during an earthquake.

Task 2: The Preposition Police

Read the following passage of text. How many prepositions can you see

Could you change the prepositions to a different preposition and still have the sentence make sense?

George took his dog Sally for a walk along the canal. Sally waited beside the road. They walked across the road. Together, they went through a tunnel and over a stile. George threw Sally's ball toward the tall grass and it landed in the river. Sally swam through the water and dived underneath the surface to get the ball. She ran back to George and dropped the ball in front of him for another turn. She dropped it from her mouth when she returned next to him. After sunset, they went home and snuggled on the couch beneath a cosy blanket.

Task 2: The Preposition Police

Here are the prepositions in each sentence.

Did you manage to find them all?

What preposition did you change each one for?

Don't forget to read your sentences back to make sure they still make sense.

George took his dog Sally for a walk along the canal. Sally waited beside the road. They

George took his dog Sally for a walk along the canal. Sally waited beside the road. They walked across the road. Together, they went through a tunnel and over a stile. # Task 3:

- Read the setting description examples on the next four slides.
- Prepositions have been underlined.
- Watch the video, 'The Clock Tower'.
- Write your own setting description including as many prepositions as you can.

The villagers of Little Hangleton still called it "the Riddle House," even though it had been many years since the Riddle family had lived there. It stood on a hill overlooking the village, some of its windows boarded, tiles missing from its roof, and ivy spreading unchecked over its face. Once a fine-looking manor, and easily the largest and grandest building for miles around, the Riddle House was now damp, derelict, and unoccupied.

Stars twinkled overhead in the midnight sky. The only sounds that punctuated the night were the crackling and spitting of the flames in the campfire. A gentle, cool breeze drifted across the forest landscape, kissing the faces of the mesmerized children. The smell of marshmallows toasting over the flickering fire wound their way up the children's noses. Flames stood tall and proud, their sparks illuminating the dark, creating dancing shadows on the children's eager faces. All present were completely silent, as still as marble statues. They sat, watching, waiting, for the tales of old to begin.

Looking into the inside, Lucy saw several coats hanging up - mostly long fur coats. There was nothing Lucy liked so much as the smell and feel of fur. She immediately stepped into the wardrobe and got in among the coats and rubbed her face against them, leaving the door open, of course, because she knew that it is very foolish to shut oneself into any wardrobe.

Soon, she went further in and found there was a second row of coats hanging up behind the first one. It was almost dark in there and she kept her arms stretched out in front of her so as not to bump her face into the back of the wardrobe. She took a step further in - then two or three steps - always expecting to feel woodwork against the tips of her fingers.

Harry went down to breakfast the next morning to find the three Dursleys already sitting around the kitchen table. They were watching a brand-new television, a welcome-home-for-the-summer present for Dudley, who had been complaining loudly about the long walk between the fridge and the television in the living room. Dudley had spent most of the summer in the kitchen, his piggy little eyes fixed on the screen and his five chins wobbling as he ate continually.

Harry sat down between Dudley and Uncle Vernon, a large, beefy man with very little neck and a lot of mustache. Far from wishing Harry a happy birthday, none of the Dursleys made any sign that they had noticed Harry enter the room, but Harry was far too used to this to care. He helped himself to a piece of toast and then looked up at the reporter on the television, who was halfway through a report on an escaped convict.

Now watch the following short film: 'The Clock Tower', by clicking on the picture below or going to the website as detailed below:

www.literacyshed.com/the-clock-tower

You will only need to write about the first 45 seconds; when the setting is in colour.

If you are unable to watch the film, there are some stills of the film on the following slide...

TASK 3:

Your task is to write a setting description of the village that has the clock tower and the girl dancing in the clock tower.

You can focus on any part i.e. the whole village, the clock tower on the outside, the clock tower on the inside. Or you could write a short paragraph of each.

Your writing must include prepositions and you need to underline every preposition you use.

Don't forget you can look at the examples of the four different setting descriptions on the previous slides and magpie some ideas, words and phrases to include in your own writing.

You must remember your non-negotiables:

- capital letters
- full stops
- commas in a list
- writing in paragraphs
- neat handwriting, mostly joined

Try to include:

- compound sentences
- coordinating conjunctions
- subordinating conjunctions

Good luck! We can't wait to read your fabulous setting descriptions.
